Cuisine: Steak House

Wine list by King Wang

Wine on list: 900 (27 by the glass)

By the glass: 50 - 1660 RMB

The 1515 wine list is a masterpiece. It begins with a history lesson on the world of wine and ends with a roundup of sweet wines from across the vinous globe. In between is a thoughtful selection of interesting, iconic and cult wines. The listing by individual producers adds gravitas, as does the thoughtful selection of Chinese wines. The extensive spirit selection is a bonus, as too the enticing cocktail list. You won't go thirsty at 1515.

Wine list by Henry Huo

Wine on list: 279 (16 by the glass)

By the glass: 78 - 280 RMB

Set in the Grand Hyatt in Hangzhou and this year cementing its place as a three glass list with a range that encompass many parts of the globe. It is strongest in France and offers many fine choices from other parts of Europe. Pleasingly, the range from China (especially its reds) is comprehensive and well-chosen.

Cuisine: Italian Fine Dining

Wine list by Ervin Ong

Wine on list: 584 (19 by the glass)

By the glass: 110 - 980 RMB

Best Digestif List

Led by one of China's finest Champagne offerings, the 8½ Otto e Mezzo Bombana Shanghai list is interesting and unique. You only need to peruse the informed beer selection or the array of aged Italian whites to witness the charisma, let alone the deeply impressive collection of wines. The mini-verticals of icon producers is a big drawcard here, and this extends all the way through to some wonderful big bottles for extra impact. A great list.

Cuisine: French Cuisine

Wine list by Mr Sam Liu

Wine on list: 197 (13 by the glass)

By the glass: 90 - 260 RMB

Thoughtful mix of champagnes, both growers and houses, as well as various styles, opens the list. Very solid Bordeaux array, including a small vertical of Petrus which will thrill, all well combined with exciting Burgundies. Italy also impresses. Good collection by the glass and a fine supporting cast of spirits.

Cuisine: French

Wine list by Joe Yang

Wine on list: 900 (21 by the glass)

By the glass: 95 - 2500 MOP

A veritable feast awaits for French wine lovers, especially those who seek out older vintages of the world's great icons and stars from Burgundy and Bordeaux. For many, the excellent wines by the glass listing affords a look at some of them for a fraction of the price including Margaux and a wonderful aged Hermitage Blanc from Chapoutier. You have to applaud the Rédecouvrir or "Discovery" listing that seeks out some of the smaller, interesting producers of Burgundy, offering fabulous starting point for, yes, discovery! While French focused - with a particularly keen eye on Champagne, Burgundy and Bordeaux - in keeping with the Alain Ducasse food philosophy, this is very much a world listing, too.

Cuisine: Bar

Wine list by Ms Emma Liang

Wine on list: 100 (13 by the glass)

By the glass: 68 - 1588 RMB

Emma Liang has crafted a wonderful tome for alc% More Than Wine. It's brimful of historical information and maps of the wide range of countries that are represented on this compelling wine list. The selection is focussed and tight with top-shelf offerings mingling with benchmarks and value-for-money wines. The short, sharp 'by the glass' list follows the same principles with the thoughtful Sommelier's Recommendations adding panache.

Cuisine: Modern Chaozhou Cuisine

Wine list by TOPISOMM Studio, Annie Yuan

Wine on list: 399 (6 by the glass)

By the glass: 118 - 220 RMB

Amazing Chinese Jing'an in Shanghai features high-end Chao Zhou cuisine with a modern and creative flair. An extensive menu is balanced by a substantial wine list of almost 400 options. The focus here is on French wine, especially chardonnay and pinot noir; beginning with an excellent Champagne selection before moving on to the still versions from Burgundy. A range of other varieties from well-respected producers around the world completes the list.

AMAZING CHINESE CUISINE 🍷🍷🍷

菁禧荟

Cuisine: Modern Chaozhou Cuisine

Wine list by TOPISOMM Studio, Annie Yuan

Wine on list: 185 (7 by the glass)

By the glass: 88 - 220 RMB

Amazing Chinese Cuisine has a few restaurants in Shanghai. This one is part of the stunning Wai Tan of 'The Bund' district; a waterfront promenade on the Huangpu River known for its beautiful neoclassical architecture. The menu offers an extensive range of Chaozhou cuisine, paired with a well-curated wine list. Burgundy is championed, but there are some great finds from sought-after producers of the new world. Chinese wines and spirits also feature, including a premium selection of Moutai.

Cuisine: Contemporary French Fine Dining

Wine list by Mr Dirk Chen

Wine on list: 1800 (50 by the glass)

By the glass: 178 - 1500 HKD

Amber has a world-class list. Its focus is primarily on the greatest wines of France (Dom is a favourite): the range and depth of the cellar defies belief. There's room for some smart wines from Italy, Germany and Spain, even the USA and Australia. The range by the glass is astounding with Coravin being a star turn. The wines of China are given due respect with an Oriental Pairing, and Dry White and Red selections of reasonable size.

AMBRÉ CIEL

珀餐厅

1F, Meifan Plaza, 588 Xixi Road, Xihu District, HangZhou, Zhejiang 310021

N/A

Cuisine: French

Wine list by Mr Martin Liu

Wine on list: 329 (21 by the glass)

By the glass: 115 - 398 RMB

Ambre Ciel is an intimate fine dining restaurant in Hangzhou. The elegant design consists of just six tables separated by textured walls that evoke pure sophistication. The ever-evolving prix-fixe menu has its roots in traditional French cuisine, with creative Chinese twists. An international wine list celebrates top producers from Europe and beyond (including local wines) with a special focus on Bordeaux and Burgundy. The exceptional 'by the glass' list invites adventurous pairings.

ASA SHANGHAI

Room 102, M Park, Heishi Apartment, No. 1331 Fuxing Middle Road, Xuhui District, Shanghai 200031

13701620591

N/A

Cuisine: Tapas

Wine list by Mr Chao-Chin Chang

Wine on list: 90 (9 by the glass)

By the glass: 60 - 140 RMB

From the outset, you feel the contemporary intrigue of ASA Shanghai's list, which merrily dips into the world of minimal intervention wine styles and fun wines. The seasonal wine and other drink selections offer some (welcome) eclectic tastes and the extensive focus on local Chinese wines remains another dose of charisma. Looking to the future, some slight tweaks of design to make this list a little easier to navigate would be welcome, but otherwise, it's more a case of a tight list that could be even greater with more listings.

AURORA, ALTIRA

奥罗拉

Avenida de Kwong Tung, Taipa, Macau (SAR) 999078

853 2886 8868

<https://www.altiramacau.com/en/dining/aurora#All>

Cuisine: Italian & Steak House

Wine list by David Vilhena Tavares

Wine on list: 365 (17 by the glass)

By the glass: 60 - 220 MOP

Ostensibly an Italian wine list to match an Italian-led menu, but this is also a steakhouse and so expect some real "meaty" as well as elegant reds sourced from around the world for balance. Red wines are possibly the real strength of this list with a strong selection from Italy, France, Portugal, USA and Australia on show. Old World and New World wines are well covered. It's not a big list with 365 wines, but there is quality and some well-priced drinking to be found throughout. Verticals are sprinkled throughout the list, but the pièce de résistance is the amazing Château Latour "Grand Vin" Vertical Collection 1945-2005 which is available for purchase for MOP 1,300,000!

AUX BEAUX ARTS, MGM MACAU

寶雅座

Avenida Dr. Sun Yat Sen, Nape, Macau (SAR) 999078
853 8802 2319

<https://www.mgm.mo/en/macau/dining/aux-beaux-arts>

Cuisine: French Cuisine

Wine list by Mr Chris Lam

Wine on list: 1400 (30 by the glass)

By the glass: 80 - 500 MOP

This is a simply monumental list: an impressive range of champagne with verticals of the most prestigious; similarly with Bordeaux with 10+ vintages of Lafite, Latour, Mouton, Margaux (20) and Burgundy featuring DRC, Rousseau followed by a dance around the world of the finest wines of Portugal, Italy, Spain, California, Australia. It's spine-tingling stuff. Against this backdrop, the range of the wines of China seems miserly. The wines by the glass (& carafe) caters well for those with more limited budgets.

AVANT RESTAURANT

109A, Shennan Circuits Building, OCT East Road, Nanshan District, Shenzhen, Guangdong 518000

+86 18998996444

Cuisine: Modernism Cuisine

Wine list by Alice Wen, Paul Guan

Wine on list: 547 (19 by the glass)

By the glass: 168 - 568 RMB

A strong focus on the champagnes of Krug is an exciting way to kick off a stellar list. This, however, is merely the tip of the iceberg of a stunning collection of champagnes. It sets the theme for the entire list. Lovers of Burgundy, red and white, and Burgundian varieties will be over the moon. Europe fares better than the New World but there is something for everyone.

AZUR, SHANGRI-LA HOTEL BEIJING

Cuisine: French Riviera cuisine

Wine list by Eric Yang

Wine on list: 240 (11 by the glass)

By the glass: 68 - 198 RMB

Sitting within the Shangri-La Beijing, Azur makes a strong case for not leaving the hotel. The considered wine list covers a lot of ground, and while there's a focus on France, it also covers Italy, Spain, South America, Australia and more – not to mention China. While prices hit some highs for the icons (Rousseau, DRC et al), there are plenty of others at much more approachable prices. Maps and notes on key global regions are a nice touch throughout, and the selections fit nicely with the French-leaning fine-dining menu.

BAO LI XUAN, BULGARI HOTEL SHANGHAI

宝丽轩

Cuisine: Cantonese cuisine

Wine list by Mr Adrian Zhang

Wine on list: 340 (18 by the glass)

By the glass: 100 - 520 RMB

The standard of wine and beverage lists at Shanghai's Bulgari Hotel is uniformly high, and this offering from Bao Li Xuan is no exception. Notably, seeing so many less-mainstream wines and spirits on this smartly put-together list is a pleasure, with so many listings going well beyond the usual European benchmarks. A special mention also to the whisky selection at Bao Li Xuan, which is applaudable in its depth. Start with the Sommelier Selections sub-section for a natural starting point or the excellent choices from Great Italian Women in Organic Wine.

BISTRO DEMI

西半小酒馆

No. 129 Xibangzishi Street, Lianhu District, Xi'an, Shaanxi

N/A

Cuisine: Fusion cuisine
Wine list by Paul Guan, Daniel Liu
Wine on list: 147 (27 by the glass)
By the glass: 35 - 88 RMB

There's lots of wonderful wine on the Bistro Demi wine list with France and Spain leading the way, supported by a sprinkling of benchmarks from across the other European countries and the new world. China features well with the value-for-money 'by the glass' list an added bonus.

BISTRO OHLALA

Shop 110, Hisense South Building, 1777 Chuangye Road,
Nanshan District, Shenzhen, Guangdong 518000

N/A

Cuisine: Italian and Shanghai Cuisine
Wine list by Mr Hui Xie
Wine on list: 150 (150 by the glass)
By the glass: 58 - 1580 RMB

An interesting mix of sparkling wines kicks off this rather eclectic list, a theme which carries throughout. Sprinkled throughout are names like Mortet, Ponsot, Dugat, Jamet and JJ Prum among others. Some fine local offerings and quality sweeties tie this intriguing list together.

BLACK BAMBOO

黑竹

Shop 101, No 281 Haiming Road, Tianhe District, Guangzhou,
Guangdong 510000

N/A

Cuisine: Bistro
Wine list by Powell Xue
Wine on list: 508 (10 by the glass)
By the glass: 88 - 238 RMB

Some wonderful champagnes make for a fine start to this exceptional list. Even a section of champagnes made from rarely used varieties, something one does not see every day. The list continues this way throughout with some superb Bordeaux and Burgundy. Very much for lovers of great wines but there are some fine bargains to be enjoyed as well. Monumental collection of whiskies.

BLACKSWAN FRENCH RESTAURANT

黑天鹅法餐厅

6 Tianzhu Road Kaifa Street, Shunyi District, Beijing 101312
1053859911
N/A

Cuisine: French Cuisine
Wine list by Mr Tyler Chen
Wine on list: 1680 (29 by the glass)
By the glass: 88 - 5880 RMB

Best New List

Tyler Chen has curated an extraordinary wine list brimful of vinous delights. The 'by the glass' sets the standard with DRC Grands Échézeaux on pour! A swath of magnums adds gravitas as does the multiple verticals of top drops from Champagne, Burgundy and Bordeaux. A solid selection from the Rhone, Germany, Italy and Spain backs up the credibility of this miraculous wine list. The bold offering from the USA and a special focus on China rounds things out with an enticing offering of dessert wines and fortifieds the grand finale.

BLOSSOM PALACES CHEF GUANGZHOU

Cuisine: Zhe Style Chinese

Wine list by Anson Mui

Wine on list: 158 (18 by the glass)

By the glass: 68 - 268 RMB

The selection of 'wines by the glass' combines an intriguing mix of local, New and Old World wines, which sets the tone for the entire list. Significant emphasis here on pairing wines and food. A fine array of local offerings. The supporting cast includes an appealing selection of Chinese spirits.

BLOSSOM PALACES CHEF SHENZHEN

花悦庭CHEF 深圳

4/F, Block B, Qianhai Horoy Center, 5059 Tinghai Boulevard,

Cuisine: Zhe Style Chinese

Wine list by Anson Mui

Wine on list: 113 (10 by the glass)

By the glass: 68 - 128 RMB

Anyone keen to sample some local Chinese wines will find themselves well catered for here. Wines grouped in a rather unique manner but the list is worth exploring. Numerous options here from regions around the globe. A good supporting cast of spirits.

BLUE ASH, XINGHUAN INTERNATIONAL

COMMERCIAL CENTER

Shop 13-15, 4th Floor, No. 11 Qiaoguang West Road, Yuexiu
District, Guangzhou, Guangdong 510120

N/A

Cuisine: Integrating Creative Cuisine Restaurant

Wine list by Terry Yizhang Chen

Wine on list: 61 (12 by the glass)

By the glass: 68 - 138 RMB

The list offers a wide array of good value options from a diverse range of wine regions. Some appealing Italians. Names like Jean Fournier, Carillon, Blank Canvas, Loosen and more will be well received by wine lovers. There is a solid supporting cast of spirits and beverages.

BON BOEUF

炭索

Room L1-06, 1st Floor, Building 1, Satet Shopping Center, 22
Jianguomenwai Street, Beijing, 100024
17316170896

N/A

Cuisine: Steak House

Wine list by Mr Jayson Song

Wine on list: 124 (14 by the glass)

By the glass: 38 - 198 RMB

The name Bon Boeuf says it all with sommelier Jayson Song crafting a bold selection of beef friendly wines. While the focus is on France, the rest of Europe and the new world of wine are well represented. A tight list of spirits, beers and other drinks rounds out this compact and compelling wine list.

BOUNDLESS ART GALLERY RESTAURANT

之界餐厅

No. 8 Hubin Road, Guanshan Lake District, Guiyang, Guizhou 550000

+86 0851- 8552 2533

N/A

Cuisine: Chinese Cuisine

Wine list by Jiajia Zhang

Wine on list: 116 (12 by the glass)

By the glass: 68 - 198 RMB

The Boundless wine list offers, well, boundless opportunity to enjoy this art gallery and its vibrant restaurant. At the core is a wide range of quality wine from across the old and new worlds of wine. Pricing is modest with lots of value for the canny customer. The succinct 'by the glass' offering reflects the tight structure of the list with the similarly compact offering of Chinese wines completing this refreshing wine list.

BRASSERIE, THE PARISIAN MACAO

巴黎人法式餐廳

Level 3, Estrada do Istmo, Lote 3, Cotai, Macau (SAR) 999078 81188822

<https://www.parisianmacao.com/restaurants/brasserie.html>

Cuisine: French

Wine list by Mr Joao Chaves

Wine on list: 445 (15 by the glass)

By the glass: 80 - 190 MOP

A classic French menu meets a classic, French-dominated wine list and it's a meeting that many a diner will be revelling in. While the full French experience is offered from Champagne onwards, it is obvious that the focus belongs to the prestigious producers of Burgundy and Bordeaux. That said, it is worthwhile looking a little deeper into the wines of the Rhône Valley, the Loire, the Languedoc and Alsace where some enjoyable drinking is to be had. In partnership with France is a group of Europeans and internationals that can also be called into service to match some of the classic French dishes served.

THE BRIDGE CHENGDU

廊桥餐厅

No.66 ,Binjiang East Road , Jinjiang District, Chengdu, Sichuan 610000

028-8446888

<http://www.thebridge.com.cn/en/gourmet.php>

Cuisine: Modern Sichuan Cuisine

Wine list by Mr Stan Shu

Wine on list: 97 (8 by the glass)

By the glass: 78 - 118 RMB

The Bridge is a keen supporter of the exciting, emerging Chinese wine industry, presenting a terrific introduction to the wines of eight regions from sparklings and table wines through to dessert styles. Diners also have the option of tasting three by the glass. The styles listed together with a range of Chinese beers, teas, plum wines and Baijiu work particularly well with the restaurant's modern Sichuan cuisine. Outside China, the wines of both the Old World and the New World are explored with a real cross-section of producers on show, from the young, fresh and approachable to icons such as Opus One, Vega Sicilia and Sassicaia. Good non-alcoholic options are also available.

Cuisine: An unprecedented Broth experience

Wine list by Dave Chan

Wine on list: 668 (15 by the glass)

By the glass: 90 - 380 MOP

The Broth by Andre Chiang wine list is a masterpiece. All bases are well covered with the icons of France to the fore. That said, the in-depth selection of Chinese wines is to be applauded, so too the extensive sake listing. Top shelf wines are priced accordingly but there's plenty of good value options for the canny wine lover.

BRUSTIN

布洛斯汀现代料理餐厅

17713562299

N/A

Cuisine: Fine Dining

Wine list by Mr Enoch Zhang

Wine on list: 143 (9 by the glass)

By the glass: 38 - 168 RMB

A young restaurant with an equally youthful and fresh listing of wines that meets a full range of price points. Whatever your budget, there's something here to be enjoyed from Bordeaux First Growths through to Italian IGTs. The emphasis is on France and Europe in general but look a little deeper and there are some hidden gems from Chile, Argentina and the USA, not to mention some homegrown Chinese reds definitely worth searching out. The odd orange, natural, organic and biodynamic wine is sprinkled throughout the list, too.

BRUT EATERY XIN TIAN DI

悦璞食堂

Cuisine: Western Fusion Food

Wine list by Mr Yufei

Wine on list: 90 (8 by the glass)

By the glass: 58 - 298 RMB

This is a much smaller list than last year and this is reflected in its score. That said, it is a fascinating wine list. Like no other. It is divided into five lists: a glance of elegance; flower; herb; fruit; wood. The menu supports a fascinating philosophy with a good range of reasonably priced wines from around the world. Thoughtful.

BY MA-IA-KI

Cuisine: Chinese Bistro

Wine list by Tim Shi

Wine on list: 98 (6 by the glass)

By the glass: 85 - 118 RMB

By ma-ia-ki's eclectic wine list is full of contrasts, with a vein of minimal intervention selections on the one hand, but also some very traditional styles on the other. The bright spots of this frequently entertaining offering include some wonderful new world New Zealand & South African choices, and carefully curated Burgundy. The wish here is for more wines by the glass and some drinks beyond wine.

Cuisine: Modern European

Wine list by James Teng

Wine on list: 480 (21 by the glass)

By the glass: 122 - 335 RMB

A lovely and easy to navigate list with wines sourced locally and from all over the world from both well know names and smaller up-and-coming producers. Cute ladybird emojis guide you to 'biodynamically grown wines throughout the list and in the lengthy and enticing Champagne section, more symbols will guide you at a glance which wines are exclusively made from growers, Chardonnay or from Pinot, which are sweet and how many years on lees. The list is sorted by country and region and of particular interest is the range of Chinese wine from across the country, with a small and concise explanation of each region's climate. And if you are willing and able to 'stay thirsty' there is even more to be had at the back of the list including a huge range of spirits, cocktails and more.

With a charismatic selection that covers plenty of surprises, Calypso's list leans towards Italian styles but with a welcome diversity of international flavours. A pleasure to see an array of mature wines here (and not just in red wines), although a close eye is needed on some fresher white and rosé. Also, the affordable pricing makes exploring the back catalogue even more enticing. A few more wines by the glass and non-wine choices would be welcome, as well as a focus on detail for even more success.

Wholly deserving of its rating, the well-chosen Canfa list shows that you don't need a large selection to provide interesting drinking. The clever titles and broad range of wines notably delve beyond France and Italy, and across both lesser-known old world choices (including Swiss and Greek outliers, right through to quality Chinese, Australian and New Zealand offerings. A focus beyond just wines would be a welcome inclusion for the future too.

Canton Disco's wine list has plenty to offer from across the globe including an enticing hand chosen 'Sommelier Selection' of wine by the glass. If you have your preferred countries will easily find what you need as this list is navigated by region and then varietal with quite a few wines offering some bottle age and more complexity. There are some exclusive wines such as Guigal's La Turque, Ausone and Lafite-Rothschild (1989) for the prices you would expect, and there are also some smaller producers with attractive price points. There is something for everyone at Canton Disco.

Casa Don Alfonso offers traditional Italian dining from the Grand Lisboa in Macau. The menu includes pizza cooked in the woodfired oven, alongside classic dishes from the Sorrento Peninsula and the Amalfi Coast. An astonishing wine list spans over 600 pages and 17600+ wines. A remarkable Champagne list transitions to extensive Burgundy and Bordeaux collections, and, of course, Italian icons. But it's not just about the top end; strong representation from renowned producers across the world have a place on this list – lovers of German riesling will need to plan ahead and book a hotel room with 190 pages to choose from.

A wine list curated by Yang Lu, China's Master Sommelier and founder of the Top Somm Studio which looks to some of the world's super premium and super expensive wines. It can seem intimidating, but should you persist and delve a little deeper into the 139 wine listing there are some fairly well-priced alternatives to be found from both the Old and New Worlds. The odd Chinese wine is sprinkled across the list and is well worth tracking down. Alas, there are no wines available by the glass, something that we highly recommend the wine list invest in, in the future.

The wines of Portugal from a well-priced, approachable white and red wine by the glass through to a fascinating aged arinto, to a range of excellent touriga nacional red blends from the Douro, bring the Portuguese cuisine served at Chiado alive. And, in many ways, the best is saved until last with a stunning selection of fortifieds from Taylor's, Dow's, Niepoort and Quinta do Noval to be considered, making it a more than suitable close to the meal. And placed around the wines of Portugal is a range of world wines that also deserve attention. Plenty of choice here.

Chiuchow Darling's offering deserves plenty of encouragement, particularly with its spread of modern and Italian wine styles and welcome focus on minimal intervention styles. You'll particularly want to navigate to the 'Terroir' and 'Fine Wine' sections of this list to discover the best, for there is plenty to unearth. A stronger offering of wines by the glass would help to highlight the more interesting choices on the list, and a few more wines beyond classic countries would help too.

Wine list by Mr Andy Tam

Wine on list: 1249 (16 by the glass)

By the glass: 90 - 250 MOP

This list has a great deal in common with others in the MGM Cotai without perhaps the finesse and flourishes of Aux Beaux Arts. It impresses with its range of champagne including verticals of the most prestigious. The Bordeaux verticals also include 10+ vintages of Lafite, Latour, Mouton, Margaux (20) and Haut Brion (20). Burgundy features DRC, Rousseau and Dujac. There are good sections of wines from Portugal, Italy, Spain, California and Australia. It's pleasing to see a decent range of quality wines from China. There's an excellent collection of premium Teas as well as a good range of wines by the glass (& carafe) which caters well for those with more limited budgets. There's a white and a red from China for those who wish to sample the local wines.

The British wine and spirit industries make a well-timed splash, led by a number of excellent sparklings, in order to match Churchill's British-inspired cuisine. Outside the Brits, the world opens up with a strong selection of wines led by France, Italy, Portugal and Spain. The thoroughness of the USA listing will excite many, too, and keep an eye out for the small Chinese collection of wines. Wines of youth and freshness go head to head with some lovely aged wines, particularly the wines of Bordeaux which take on a starring role.

Wine list by Wells Wang

Wine on list: 155 (12 by the glass)

By the glass: 68 - 188 RMB

As befitting a French focused menu, the offering at Circle is firmly preoccupied with the wines of France (and Burgundy in particular), with a selection to please Francophiles. Besides a quality selection of whisky, the range beyond this looks a little thin, but given this is still a very new list, the future certainly seems bright. Notably, the pricing here is also very fair, and all that's otherwise needed is a tighter attention to detail with the listings themselves.

Cuisine: Steakhouse

Wine list by Mr Adelino Sameiro

Wine on list: 324 (15 by the glass)

By the glass: 80 - 90 MOP

Copa embraces 324 wines off the Sands Master Wine List to fit in nicely with its meat-focused steakhouse menu. Rest assured, white wines aren't ignored on this international wine list but, naturally, the red wines do tend to shine that little brighter. A strong First Growth presence on the Bordeaux listing offers a fine introduction to a selection of aged reds that are nicely complimented by a mix of well-aged and younger wines from the rest of France, Italy, Portugal and the USA. A small band of wines from both hemispheres can also be found. Chinese liquors and fortifieds to close offer a fine way to finish the meal.

Cuisine: French

Wine list by James Wang

Wine on list: 197 (16 by the glass)

By the glass: 88 - 788 RMB

With its menu influenced by classic French cuisine, it's no surprise Coquille's wine list is driven by a great selection of French wine. Before you forget where you are and get stuck into the French wines, there is a page representing local wines, keeping them front of mind. Then, after a concise list of Champagne from the houses and growers both, you're led into a delicious list of whites and reds from all the great French regions and some from the lesser known. Many of these with bottle age and from some great vintages. If you don't feel like French, that is fine as well. There is whole pages of Chardonnay, as well as various varietals from around the world tucked into the back of the list awaiting your discovery. For a restaurant open a decade this is still a fresh and fun list with much to keep its guests coming back.

By the glass: 48 - 118 RMB

A smart, ambitious wine list that sometimes lets itself down in not providing full information on wines, especially when it comes to country of origin and grape variety. We suggest you ask your sommelier for guidance on some wines, while others will need little or no guidance at all, especially when it comes to some of the big name French producers listed. Be prepared for some reading with The Story of Champagne which is presented in attractive graphics over a number of chapters, each chapter bringing with it a range of wines to be considered.

A small but mighty list with plenty of interest packed into its 72 vinous options. A sommelier selection leads you in and keeps things easy if you don't want to delve. There is a strong French influence yet with wines from most regions of the world, from Tibet to New Zealand. There is an amber coloured wine section if you want to go on trend and best of all, each section has a good range of prices so you can take it easy or really splash out if you want to.

By the glass: 350 - 900 TWD

The Din Yue Ji Pin wine list sets a high standard with an broad sweep across the vinous globe. A focus on Champagne and Burgundy adds gravitas, as does the tight selection of Taiwanese wines. Sake takes centre stage with good selection of half bottles and large formats a bonus. So too the Rhone Valley selection with Chateau Rayas to the fore. Prices seem modest, especially when compared to many mainland China wine lists. Keen-eyed customers should revel in this carefully curated selection.

Wine on list: 1587 (40 by the glass)

By the glass: 100 - 5500 MOP

Elegant Italian dining is the theme of Don Alfonso 1890 at the Grand Lisboa Palace in Macau. The menu incorporates ingredients from the Don Alfonso organic farm in Italy with premium produce from selected suppliers. The extraordinary wine list begins with cellar selections dating back to the famed 1947 vintage from Chateau Cheval Blanc. The 'by the glass' list features Italian wines alongside a premium selection under Coravin (notably Domaine de la Romanee-Conti). Whilst the Burgundy and Bordeaux selections are impressive, there's thoughtful curation overall, with international offerings and attention drawn to some lesser known Italian varieties and styles.

The list at EHB is not only beautiful to look it is a delight to explore. There is a deluxe list of Champagne that includes not only the big houses but also some smaller producers and growers. Possibly every highly regarded winery in France is represented here and the list is flush with verticals and museum wines from some of the best vintages in the past few decades. Want something older? There are Madeiras on the list over 100 years old. Like a glass of something special? There are not many places you can enjoy a glass of Chateau Le Pin, but you can at EHB. And if you would like your wines paired to the tasting menu, of course the sommelier team at EHB is on hand.

Cuisine: Chinese

Wine list by Mr Paul Lo

Wine on list: 17500 (14 by the glass)

By the glass: 130 - 280 MOP

Like the other restaurants at Macau's Grand Hotel Lisboa, the Eight utilises its 17,500 bottle cellar. The Eight, therefore, has access to one of the world's great collections of wine; lengthy verticals of the most keenly sought-after wines on the planet. A visit deserves careful preparation. The small list by the glass contains first rate wines from many of the world's finest producers at fair prices. A great night out is assured.

Cuisine: Cantonese cuisine

Wine list by Kevin Liu, Trista Zhu

Wine on list: 450 (34 by the glass)

By the glass: 78 - 128 RMB

Tucked away at the back of this list are wines by the glass, but they are definitely worth a look. An all-encompassing collection with care taken to include a range of maturities. The list includes wines from the top regions around the world but what stands out is that so many are developed wines. An impressive array.

Cuisine: Sichuan Cuisine

Wine list by Ms Alena Chen

Wine on list: 1249 (16 by the glass)

By the glass: 100 - 320 MOP

As part of the MGM hotel complex, expect a master list presentation where the great wines of the world rub shoulders. Super premium producers from Champagne, Burgundy, Bordeaux and Italy line the pages often attached to verticals of their top wines. It's an absolute treasure trove for wine lovers with choice aplenty. Should you wish for something that doesn't break the bank, that is delivered as well with some excellent wines from Old and New World producers that bring youth and freshness and all round good drinking. The aromatic whites and medium-bodied reds from Austria, Germany, Portugal, New Zealand, Australia and the USA are perfectly pitched to the Sichuan cuisine offered here.

THE FLYING CATCH, SHANGRI-LA

Cuisine: Mediterranean

Wine list by Jennifer Yu

Wine on list: 85 (9 by the glass)

By the glass: 58 - 148 RMB

Diversity is the key at The Flying Catch, where Argentina, Chile, New Zealand and Australia are among the new-world nations that sit alongside European classics – turn the page over from the wines by the glass and you get a choice of Domaine de la Romanée-Conti, followed by Bordeaux. As a Mediterranean restaurant within the Shangri-La Hotel, these wines offer up plenty of options to suit the meal, whatever your order, as well as the chance to push the boat out – or rein it in.

Cuisine: Italian

Wine list by James Teng

Wine on list: 285 (23 by the glass)

By the glass: 95 - 498 RMB

Best Aperitif List

Not just a strong list for China, Frasca's Italianate selection is globally a captivating offering, with a grand blend of styles, vintages and flavours. You only need to start with the well-rounded selection by the glass with its Coravin poured diversity to see the quality of the Frasca offering. Then you tour through the cellar list of aged icons or peruse the compilation of proudly iconic cocktails (that come with a twist). At every turn, this compelling offering exudes thought and care.

Cuisine: Modern Chinese Cuisine

Wine list by Kit Lee

Wine on list: 262 (17 by the glass)

By the glass: 138 - 568 RMB

The team at Fumee has created a standout list from start to finish, with quality wines from around the world as well as a noteworthy selection from China. Wines by the glass span a wide range of varieties and regions of origin, while the Champagnes and sparkling wines include everything from Salon to House of Arras. While France is especially well represented throughout this list, other pinnacle nations and regions also feature, including top picks from NZ, South America and more.

G RESTAURANT, GRAND HYATT

Cuisine: Western Food

Wine list by Ms Fiona Wen, Ms Hannah Zhuang

Wine on list: 152 (14 by the glass)

By the glass: 60 - 160 RMB

A wide-ranging selection by the glass with some quality options. It sets the tone for the remainder of the list. There are some exciting champagnes and big name Bordeaux, with high quality selections from other regions. Finishes with an excellent supporting cast of spirits and beverages.

GEM GARDEN

Cuisine: Chaozhou cuisine

Wine list by Karl Mo, Arneis Wu

Wine on list: 149 (4 by the glass)

By the glass: 98 - 128 RMB

The Coravin program allows for some interesting wines by the glass, but it is with the champagnes where the quality really kicks in. There are some seriously impressive Burgundies, both red and white, as well as big name Bordeaux. Plenty of fine options from other top regions as well, including locally.

GENTLE L FRENCH CUISINE 🍷🍷🍷

无中文名

Cuisine: Fine French Restaurant
Wine list by Henry Wu
Wine on list: 214 (16 by the glass)
By the glass: 118 - 780 RMB

Gentle L surprises and will delight most. There's a clear focus on wines of delicacy and finesse from France and other parts of the world. It's an impressive grouping of wine by the glass, all served under Coravin. There's a slightly obsessive view of the work of (male) wine critics. Wine lovers will find many wines to delight and match the restaurant's cuisine.

GOLDEN COURT, SANDS MACAO 🍷🍷🍷

金沙閣

3 Floor Sands Macao, Macao, Macau (SAR) 999078

Cuisine: Cantonese
Wine list by Ms Crystal Ao
Wine on list: 324 (15 by the glass)
By the glass: 80 - 190 MOP

Plays off the master Sands Macao wine list and does a fine job of offering plenty of choice from a strong international wine selection in line with its Cantonese cuisine. Good concentration of aromatic and no-to-lightly wooded white wines and a group of rosés that will be many diners' first port of call. Afterwards, the main course opens up - a prestigious group of top Bordeaux, Burgundy, Rhône Valley reds well complemented by the Italians and others. It is worthwhile seeking out the small range of Chinese wines and liquors on offer.

GOLDEN FLOWER, WYNN PALACE 🍷🍷🍷

Cuisine: Modern Imperial cuisine
Wine list by Julie Chu
Wine on list: 668 (15 by the glass)
By the glass: 90 - 380 MOP

The Golden Flower wine list is a masterpiece. All bases are well covered with the icons of France to the fore. That said, the in-depth selection of Chinese wines is to be applauded, so too the extensive sake listing. Top shelf wines are priced accordingly but there's plenty of good value options for the canny wine lover.

GORDON RAMSAY PUB & GRILL, THE

Cuisine: British gastropub and steakhouse
Wine list by Ms Violet Ng
Wine on list: 490 (15 by the glass)
By the glass: 80 - 190 MOP

Chef Gordon Ramsey's English pub food gets a lovely hometown connection in the form of the odd English sparkling and chardonnay featured on this list. Nyetimber Classic Cuvée NV from Sussex is available by the glass and is well worth a try while further contemplating this strong international wine listing. France, Portugal and Italy form the basis of a terrific selection of wines combining youth and age, big names and small family producers of note, and which can take the odd turn into some exciting wine territory such as Napa Valley chardonnay, New Zealand pinot noir, Australian shiraz and Rhône Valley red blends. Burgundy and Bordeaux lovers are in for a particularly exciting treat here.

GRAND BOAT JULU ROAD 🍷🍷

Cuisine: Cantonese Cuisine

Wine list by Mr Yang Lu, Mr Cisse Fan, Mr Waylen Wang

Wine on list: 196 (5 by the glass)

By the glass: 158 - 358 RMB

The team at Grand Boat have curated a fascinating and creative wine list. With almost 200 hand selected wines you will have no trouble finding a wine to enjoy. There is a lovely selection of aged wines paired specifically to the abalone dishes and a master selection that is hard to get past. But you must delve further, all the way because this is a list of hidden gems from around the world.

THE GRAND BUFFET (HONG KONG) 🍷🍷🍷

Cuisine: International Buffet

Wine list by Henry Chang

Wine on list: 355 (48 by the glass)

By the glass: 98 - 550 HKD

The Grand Buffet Restaurant in Hong Kong offers 360 degree views of Victoria Harbour from the revolving dining room. The cuisine, as expected, is buffet style, but this is no ordinary buffet. The menu straddles Japanese, Mexican, Thai, Cantonese, American and more. The well-curated wine list is similarly international. Wine by the glass is also self-serve, with a vending machine that allows selection of pours from 25mL tasters, half and full glasses. With 48 choices, there is a lot to explore, including unusual grape varieties and styles.

Wine list by Henry Huo

Wine on list: 282 (16 by the glass)

By the glass: 78 - 320 RMB

The name says it all - 'Steakhouse' and the Grand Hyatt wine list is perfectly pitched to the restaurant's protein powered menu. All bases are covered with France to the fore. That said, the compelling offering of Chinese wines is to be applauded with the strong 'by the glass' list in solid support. The enticing offering of spirits, cocktails and liqueurs rounds out this praiseworthy wine list.

Best Luxury Fine Wine Cellar List

The Grill 58 wine list offers an astonishing selection of the world's finest wines. France leads the way with Champagne, Burgundy and Bordeaux vying for centre stage. The enticing round-up of the rest of France is supported by a sweep across Europe and the new world of wine. Chinese wines are duly respected as are quality spirits, fortifieds and liqueurs. The highlights are many with icons to the fore and a smattering of cult wines adding spice to the mix.

Cuisine: Western Food
Wine list by Ms Lisa Li
Wine on list: 556 (17 by the glass)
By the glass: 78 - 1380 RMB

Some of the wine world's most coveted icons are on the list at Grill 79, which sits within the Shangri-La Hotel in Beijing. Opening with Coravin-sealed wines by the glass – including Roulot and Opus One – the list continues to bring the highlights. Whether that's back-vintages from the likes of Rousseau and Gaja, or less-expected releases from producers in Lebanon and Japan, it all makes for a top selection that plays nicely with the international menu, which, as the name suggests, puts the focus on steak.

GUINCHO A GALERA, HOTEL LISBOA 🍷🍷

Cuisine: Portuguese
Wine list by Jim Leung
Wine on list: 16792 (7 by the glass)
By the glass: 90 - 170 MOP

One of the world's most extraordinary wine lists. The word 'elite' doesn't do it justice as it seeks out for its pages the world's greatest wines and greatest vintages, principally from France and Europe but the wines of the USA are certainly big in number and prestige. At 16,792 wines, such a big listing is almost unmanageable and deserves a smaller list of handpicked wines that reflect its depth and breadth. Maybe something for the future, in the meantime, prepare for an extended period of mouthwatering expectation as you troll the pages, making special time to reflect on what is one of the biggest and most amazing lists of Bordeaux, Burgundy and Rhône wines in the world. The Portuguese cuisine at Guincho a Galera is well served by the internationals, but it would be nice to see more Portuguese wines noted.

HAI SHANG 🍷🍷

2F, No.1298 Huaihai Middle Road, Shanghai, 200000
153 1760 0631
N/A
Cuisine: Fusion Cuisine
Wine list by Mr Thomas Zhou
Wine on list: 248 (15 by the glass)
By the glass: 130 - 470 RMB

With a smartly compiled list that flirts with natural wines and minimal intervention styles, the Hai Shang selection features a glut of high quality wines with a particular bias towards premium Burgundy and Italian wines. Indeed quality is the biggest arbiter here, with every listing a storied choice, and coupled to a smart by-the-glass list. For the future, a little more non wine depth would be very welcome to drive this selection further.

HAKKASAN 🍷🍷🍷

哈卡桑

Bund 18, 5/F, 18 Zhongshan Dong Yi Lu, Shanghai, Shanghai

Cuisine: Cantonese
Wine list by Lewin Kong
Wine on list: 420 (20 by the glass)
By the glass: 88 - 1580 RMB

Hakkasan's list is awe-inspiring. This impressive collection of beverages begins with a mind-boggling depth of wines in the substantial by-the-glass offering right through to a solid selection of tea and other drinks. Notably, the curation is evident at every turn here, including the highlighted signature wines as a starting point and the welcome level of detail and imagination that goes into the themes and headings. Finally, a nod to the careful blend of established vs emerging labels in the Hakkasan collection; indeed, the sign of a masterful wine list.

Cuisine: Wagyu Barbecue

Wine list by Jiajia Zhang

Wine on list: 242 (12 by the glass)

By the glass: 98 - 528 RMB

This is a pleasing list for a restaurant in the southern provinces. It has good choices by the glass and in its selection from wine regions around the world. Europe is its central focus and there are many delightful wines from those countries and from other parts of the world. A good selection of wines from China, too.

HIDE THE SMOKED ROOM

Cuisine: Fusion cuisine

Wine list by Eric Wei

Wine on list: 90 (2 by the glass)

By the glass: 88 - 88 RMB

Despite the small selection, this list is unquestionably ambitious, with a surprising spread of global wine regions covered, and some eclectic listings, even if the focus still leans too far towards Burgundian wines. The sommelier selections are welcome, although the overly short offering by the glass is something that could do with more attention.

HIRO BY HIROSHI KAGATA, THE ### VENETIAN MACAO

Cuisine: Japanese cuisine

Wine list by Ms Amy Zhong

Wine on list: 443 (15 by the glass)

By the glass: 150 - 190 MOP

This Japanese restaurant within The Venetian is in luck in being able to source a quality world wine listing from the hotel's master list to match with its cuisine. The list of 443 wines offers a big world view of wine, one that works well with Japanese cuisine, and in particular if you look to the range of lovely aromatics whites available, rosés and lighter style red wines, notably pinot noir and that means, of course, Burgundy! Take a dip into Pol Roger Champagne, a Planeta white from Sicily, Irvine shiraz from Australia, a Zenato Valopolicella Superiore or Château Villa Bel Air from Bordeaux and others by the glass and the meal will be off to a great start.

HÖ WINE BAR & EATERY

N/A
Cuisine: Bistro
Wine list by Mr Stephen Yang
Wine on list: 430 (49 by the glass)
By the glass: 29 - 455 RMB

A creative, ambitious wine list that attempts something just a little different with an introduction that asks diners to use a sommelier-created 5 Senses Wine Selection System. It won't be for everyone. For the more old-fashioned approach, keep an eye on the changing daily blackboard of wines available by the glass - there is plenty of choice - in addition to a separate Sichuan Wine Rocks! list of Sichuan wines. From there, the list moves into more predictable wine territory branching out into an international list of wines that brings an attractive bunch of strong wine names together. The list can be a little confusing in its presentation but there are some quality wines on show at fair prices.

HOUSE IN HAUS, SUHE HOUSE

Cuisine: Southern Fujian
Wine list by Lucas Zhu
Wine on list: 263 (5 by the glass)
By the glass: 68 - 88 RMB

Restaurant wine and drinks lists exist to marry up ideal beverage choices to what's on the plate, and yet this simple premise is often forgotten. Not at House in Haus, where from the first few pages the intention to deliver wines that match the southern Fujian cuisine is laid out. Beyond these pairings, this list excels for its balance of emerging vs traditional producers with plenty of unexpected choices, all the way through to unusual choices (like a strong cider selection).

HUA TING, GRAND LISBOA PALACE

Cuisine: Shanghainese and Huaiyang
Wine list by Limin Chen (Winnie)
Wine on list: 1953 (40 by the glass)
By the glass: 100 - 5500 MOP

Hua Ting packs so much into its 2000 bottle list that is almost defies belief. It is immaculately presented with finesse and panache. There's a freshness and vitality to this list that is rare. There are the great wines of the world - Dom, Cristal, Krug, DRC, Mouton, Sassicaia, Screaming Eagle, Grange - invariably in sizable verticals. It starts with Coravin and an exceptional selection and then carefully chosen wines by the glass. And finishes with Premium Chinese teas.

Cuisine: Spanish

Wine list by Mr Karl Meng

Wine on list: 165 (16 by the glass)

By the glass: 80 - 148 RMB

The list at Huata Holiday Plan is clearly aimed at helping you relax like you're in holiday mode, and you'll be feeling it here. There are plenty of top-notch spirits leading you into this list, where there is a short list of fine Champagne followed by a very generous offering of sparkling wine from China, Italy, Alsace and of course Spain. The selection of Spanish wine is broad and enticing with wines as approachable in flavour as they are in price. Now don't be mistaken, this list has plenty of opportunity to splurge as well and beyond the Spanish's selection the rest of the world's wine is represented with a rich list of wines from France, Italy, the USA, China and beyond.

By the glass: 58 - 118 RMB

Curated is the best way to describe the selection at Il Giardino, as this list brims with passion and interest on every line. You can start by exploring the interesting wines by the glass, dive into the strong German selection, or admire the broad collection of Chinese reds. Now, all that remains is turning this wine list into a drinks selection with an expanded range of non-wine drinks (including beer and non-alcoholic beverages) to really drive the Il Giardino drinking experience.

IL RISTORANTE - NIKO ROMITO, BULGARI

Cuisine: Italian cuisine

Wine list by Mr Adrian Zhang

Wine on list: 340 (25 by the glass)

By the glass: 100 - 520 RMB

The Bulgari Hotel in Shanghai enjoys a number of venues with excellent wine lists, but the Italian-focused selection at il Ristorante is by the far best. This well rounded offering shows an eye on value, a balance between emerging names and iconic producers, from iconic orange wines to a suite of Barolo communes. Beyond wine, the whisky/whiskey offering (and even some grappa) is a strong finish to the Il Ristorante list.

IMPERIAL COURT, MGM MACAU 🍷🍷

Cuisine: Cantonese Cuisine

Wine list by Mr Chris Lam

Wine on list: 1400 (15 by the glass)

By the glass: 90 - 280 MOP

This is an outrageously good wine list that celebrates the great wines of France with Bordeaux to the fore. That's not to say that Burgundy is overlooked, the depth of the Domaine Leflaive and Domaine Romanee Conti selection is exceptional, as is the stunning list of Champagnes. In keeping with Macau's colonial past, there's a enticing offering of Portuguese wines - both table and port. A broad selection of teas, cocktails and spirits rounds out the stellar Imperial Court wine list.

JADE DRAGON, NÜWA

Cuisine: Chinese
Wine list by Joe Yang
Wine on list: 390 (18 by the glass)
By the glass: 95 - 650 MOP

Set in Macau's Nuwa Hotel, Jade Dragon offers an enticing wine list centring on the great wines of France and some excellent choice from Italy, Portugal, the USA and Australasia. There are also a dozen wines from China and a good collection by the glass. Chinese fortifieds and an impressive array of teas also cater for discerning customers.

JEAN-GEORGES

Cuisine: French
Wine list by Ms Fiona Huang
Wine on list: 300 (18 by the glass)
By the glass: 78 - 820 RMB

With an enviably comprehensive selection, the Jean-Georges regionally focussed selection covers the great wines of the world, from Bordeaux to Bierzo and Cote Rotie to Canberra. Indeed, you feel spoilt for choice with this classical list, with an array of mature releases that invite you to dive even deeper and are complemented by a well-rounded offering by the glass. Finally, a lack of significant beverage options beyond wine remains one of the few negatives of the Jean-Georges list.

JI LAI

Cuisine: Shanghai Cuisine
Wine list by DrinkArts Studio
Wine on list: 55 (8 by the glass)
By the glass: 68 - 138 RMB

Some intriguing offerings both by the glass and throughout this list. A mix of well-known names and emerging producers will make for pleasing options for beginners and the wine knowledgeable as well. The list is divided into styles rather than the more traditional regions or grapes and this will allow ease of selection when matching food.

JI PIN COURT, BOHENG 55

吉品轩

3rd Floor, No. 55, Wulumuqi South Road (intersection with Hengshan Road), ShangHai, 200000

Cuisine: Cantonese cuisine
Wine list by Mr Allen Wu, Mr Wayne Yue, Mr Vick Shen
Wine on list: 430 (14 by the glass)
By the glass: 85 - 210 RMB

Like a treasure trove, the Ji Pin Court list is packed with mature wines at extremely fair prices. From vintage Champagne to top-shelf Californian reds, this eclectic selection of aged wines delivers plenty of highlights. If only the focus on vintage carried through into fresher aromatic whites, rosé, and crisp sparkling wines, as that would really raise up the appeal of this list even more. A few more wines available by the glass would be welcome here, especially given all those potential ready-to-drink older options.

Wine list by Shusen Jing

Wine on list: 221 (15 by the glass)

By the glass: 48 - 128 RMB

A relatively new wine listing (2022) that zeroes in immediately on a listing of Chinese wines - great to see - and then offers two Chinese wines by the glass under the glass list. It's a good start that gets better with the Sommelier's Recommendations which put forward wine selections and their ideal food match. How about a Chinese 2018 chardonnay with steamed goose egg and crab meat with caviar? Or, maybe a Grand Cru Saint-Émilion 2008 with low temperature cooked Angus beef? From there, the wines of the world are enlisted with Spanish and Italian wines mixing it with French, German, Australian and producers of New Zealand. Prices are fair throughout but should you wish to splash out, well, the opportunity is there.

Wine list by Dennis Lee

Wine on list: 440 (11 by the glass)

By the glass: 90 - 280 RMB

This is an impressive list that covers a pleasing range of French wines - including some from often overlooked regions. There is reasonable coverage of other countries in Europe and some gems from other parts of the world. The selection of wines from China is commendable. For those seeking a non-alcoholic boost, the range of fruit juices is exemplary.

By the glass: 90 - 135 RMB

Best Wine List Western China

With its "Jazz Age Drinking Den" theme, the sommelier's interpretation is admittedly pretty wide open. What we get is a sophisticated, smart wine and drinks list that combines a sense of fun - how about delving into Jing Classic drinks, Sichuan Mule or Jasmine & Peach? - with some all round quality wine names with a rich, international feel. The wine world awaits here and it's a pretty exciting offering. Take a look into the Sommelier's Selection with tasting notes provided, or move straight into some young, fresh whites - Germany is on song - or rosé and red wines that offer top drinking with the range of snacks on offer. Chinese wines deserve your attention, and you will have trouble moving away from the spirits and drinks offered. The mood is definitely different here! What fun!

This is a confident wine list which takes the Jing customers on a vinos journey through the wonders of the world of wine. France is at the core with other European and new world countries in solid support. The 'by the glass' list is enticing with the Coravin system used for prestige drops. A deep listing of spirits adds to the credibility of this marvellous list.

Best Food & Wine Matching List

With two Michelin stars, JingJi Aristocrat is part of the Ritz Carlton Beijing, so it's no surprise the wine list features a raft of pinnacle producers. France is a clear focus here – the Champagne selection is a particular highlight – but there's a solid selection of wines from all over, as well as huangjiu, sake and an extensive choice of baiju. Wine-pairing recommendations are a nice touch, as are the large-format options.

Wine list by Mr Olive Gao

Wine on list: 278 (31 by the glass)

By the glass: 128 - 1288 RMB

The Jinsha wine list has been thoughtfully curated by Olive Gao. Its not an excessive tome rather a tightly focussed celebration of the world's best wines. France leads the way but there's solid support from Italy and Spain. A sweep across the rest of Europe and the new world adds gravitas, as does the detailed acknowledgement of Chinese wines, spirits and teas. There's sufficient top-shelf wines to satisfy the celebratory customer but the core of the list provides value and interest for the dedicated wine lover.

Wine list by Mr Ming Liao, Mr Stark Zhao

Wine on list: 248 (17 by the glass)

By the glass: 120 - 200 RMB

With a signed Geantet-Pansiot selection to lay out the uncompromising quality intentions, it's no surprise that the Jinxuan list is full of classical European wines and plenty of icons. What a pleasure to see a blend of older vintage wines here and a proper selection conveniently available by the glass, thanks to a quality Coravin addendum. Indeed, the whole offering by the glass features an array of top names). Conversely, a few selections that sit beyond the most established labels would be more welcome. However, there is no doubting the quality focus at Jinxuan.

KANTARA

Cuisine: Chinese

Wine list by Shusen Jing

Wine on list: 185 (12 by the glass)

By the glass: 58 - 235 RMB

One of the highlights of this young (2023) wine list is the depth and breadth of Chinese wines to be enjoyed. It beautifully reflects the rise and rise of Chinese wine producers. Do take a moment to search them out, especially those local to the Shandong province where this restaurant resides, whether it be a chardonnay, a white blend, rosé or range of reds including cabernet, cabernet franc and the indigenous marselan red grape and more. Outside China and among the wines available there will be interest in the selection of France, Italy and New World producers.

Wine list by Mr Paul Lo

Wine on list: 17500 (74 by the glass)

By the glass: 100 - 240 MOP

The Kitchen at the Grand Lisboa shares the 17,500 bottle cellar and so is able to offer an astounding range of the greatest wines on the planet. If there is an outstanding wine you'd like to try it will be available. The great sweet wines of German and the legendary fortifieds of Portugal are two areas that few can match. The quality on the small by the glass list is pleasing.

Wine list by Mr Attila Balint

Wine on list: 195 (15 by the glass)

By the glass: 68 - 188 RMB

The list begins with the Beverage Director, Attila, giving an exhilarating trip through the world of Chinese cocktails and spirits and offering the tasting journey Koan. The South-East Asia Spirits selection should thrill aficionados. The list is at its best when it shakes off the influence of the Shangri-La choices in areas like Wine by the Glass. There is much to delight from the listing of varieties from around the world.

LA CHANSONNIÈRE

Cuisine: French Restaurant

Wine list by Mr. Sebastion Ma

Wine on list: 284 (14 by the glass)

By the glass: 108 - 198 RMB

There are plenty of highlights at La Chansonniere, where anyone with a love for top French wines would be in their happy place. The list does go further, however, with pages of Champagne and other benchmarks mingling with wines from the Jura, for example, as well as others from Spain, Italy, Portugal and the new world. This is a well-considered list that spans various price points and a wide range of styles.

Cuisine: Mediterranean-style Western dishes

Wine list by Angel Yang

Wine on list: 102 (12 by the glass)

By the glass: 88 - 188 RMB

The Hyatt Regency in Wuxi is very much influenced by the group's master list and so you can expect excellent quality at fair prices. The list by the glass offers a good range from around the world as well as a pleasing white and red from China. There's a small yet very good champagne collection, half a dozen more of the local's finest wines, a popular range from Europe, and some carefully chosen gems from other parts of the world.

LA PETITE CHAISE BY WINEPP

Cuisine: French

Wine list by Carmen Lim

Wine on list: 280 (9 by the glass)

By the glass: 78 - 248 RMB

Its obvious that Le Petite Chaise sommelier, Carmen Lim loves wine. Her wine list is both informative and fun with excellent maps and educational detail adding a gloss to her thoughtful selection. The core of the list remains in Europe backed by a vinous sweep across the new world of wine. However, its the depth of the Chinese listing that elevates Lim's list to a higher plane. Surely, its one of the most comprehensive listing of Chinese wines in the country.

LA SEINE BISTRO

Wine list by Leo Zhao

Wine on list: 47 (5 by the glass)

By the glass: 88 - 128 RMB

Lan Mansion in Wuhan City is an immaculately presented wine list. By the glass, it is tiny. The representation of France dominates the restaurant's offering - with Champagne, Burgundy and Bordeaux offering fair choice at different price points and quality levels. The rest of the world fills in gaps in the lists both for modestly-priced wines and those of high quality.

Wine list by Henry Chang

Wine on list: 3400 (20 by the glass)

By the glass: 250 - 1080 HKD

This is an amazing wine list, a rollcall of great wines from France and beyond. The multiple verticals of icons from Bordeaux, Burgundy and Champagne is to be applauded. Prices are high but these are rare wines. That said, there's plenty of value for the keen-eyed customer. While the focus is on France (in line with Robuchon's food), Italy, Spain and the US are well covered, as are the sweet wines of Germany. Half bottles and magnums add gravitas to this enormous and compelling wine list.

Wine on list: 316 (10 by the glass)
By the glass: 88 - 138 RMB

The L'Avenue wine list celebrates all things French starting with the menu, moving through a joyous Champagne list to the carefully curated offering of table wines. Burgundy and Bordeaux lead the way, ably supported with a compelling list of wines from across France. Grower Champagnes and curios from the Jura and Savoie add gravitas. While the icons are there, the discerning wine lover will find plenty of delightful wines at modest prices.

LE BOUCHON BY TERROIR ET SOMM

No. 1455 West Wu Ding Road, Changning District, Shanghai 200000

N/A
Cuisine: French & Chinese
Wine list by Mr Richard
Wine on list: 1500 (46 by the glass)
By the glass: 69 - 6666 RMB

This wine bar / restaurant in Shanghai has a huge (1500 bottle) list and impressive 46 wines by the glass. Its focus is on Burgundy with other regions of France providing light and shade. There is some concessions made to other parts of France and the rest of the world. Le Bouchon certainly has the feel of a monumental list.

Cuisine: French Cuisine
Wine list by Mr Will Gao
Wine on list: 87 (14 by the glass)
By the glass: 88 - 188 RMB

The Le Chloe sommelier, Will Gao obviously loves his job with his list brimful of maps, photos and educational details. The wines are good too - with a sweep of France, the rest of Europe and the new world of wines. The thoughtful layout adds panache as does the snappy aperitif, digestive and quality spirits list. A refreshing ode to good wine.

LE COMPTOIR DE PIERRE GAGNAIRE,

Cuisine: French cuisine (molecular cuisine)

Wine list by Liu Yuchang

Wine on list: 350 (21 by the glass)

By the glass: 108 - 680 RMB

Its obvious that sommelier Liu Yuchang loves wine with the Le Comptoir wine list an ode to quality and value. Unlike many wine list that are top heavy with expensive icons, Yuchang has masterfully curated a delicious offering of quality wines for all the major countries and regions of the vinous world. France leads the way with Champagne, Burgundy and Bordeaux at the forefront. That's not to say that the rest of France is ignored, rather its celebrated, as is the rest of Europe and the new world of wine. Pricing is keen, value paramount.

Wine list by Henry Chang

Wine on list: 100 (9 by the glass)

By the glass: 140 - 225 HKD

France is the epicentre at Le Salon with the menu inspired by Joel Robuchon and Le Salon's sommelier Carl Tang following the Francophile theme. While Champagne, Burgundy, Bordeaux and the Rhone form the core of the list, Tang sweeps across the globe to bring light and shade to his list. The snappy 'by the glass' selection is enticing as is the equally compact list of dessert wines. In just 100 wines, Carl Tang has achieved a vinous masterpiece.

Cuisine: French Cuisine

Wine list by Henry Chang

Wine on list: 3400 (8 by the glass)

By the glass: 128 - 260 HKD

This is an amazing wine list, a rollcall of great wines from France and beyond. The multiple verticals of icons from Bordeaux, Burgundy and Champagne is to be applauded. Prices are high but these are rare wines. That said, there's plenty of value for the keen-eyed customer. While the focus is on France (in line with Robuchon's food), Italy, Spain and the US are well covered, as are the sweet wines of Germany. Half bottles and magnums add gravitas to this enormous and compelling wine list.

Cuisine: Cantonese

Wine list by Julien Peros

Wine on list: 620 (15 by the glass)

By the glass: 158 - 2000 HKD

There is an impressive list by the glass with four wines under Coravin before a Champagne feature. The wide-ranging collection of the white wines of France are featured and then an in-depth look at Burgundy and the Loire. All corners of Europe are explored for their most distinctive whites, and the voyage continues around the world. There is a focus on the best red wine regions of France and Italy and other key red wine producers around the world.

Cuisine: Cantonese and French

Wine list by Mr Henry Wu

Wine on list: 98 (14 by the glass)

By the glass: 68 - 168 RMB

Les Poissons is an impressive restaurant in Guangzhou with a list that focuses on quality wines that are made using sustainable practices. It embraces the wines of France, in particular, but searches the globe to flesh out its list. There's even a Pet Nat from China. By the glass, there are some excellent wines sourced from places as far apart as Slovenia and Paso Robles in California.

LING LONG

Cuisine: Creative Fusion of Chinese and Western

Wine list by DrinkArts Studio

Wine on list: 77 (13 by the glass)

By the glass: 78 - 318 RMB

Ling Long Beijing takes an innovative approach to their list, breaking the selections into categories such as Sky, Land, Vineyard and People, with the wines further grouped into the likes of Cool Climate, Sunshine, Soil and more. It all adds interest to a compelling and concise selection, and also reveals the level of care that's gone into its creation. The list leans French, but many other standout European wines are in the mix, as are some new-world picks, also not forgetting biodynamic and orange expressions.

Wine list by Mr Vincent Zhang

Wine on list: 190 (16 by the glass)

By the glass: 110 - 690 RMB

The almost 200 strong wine list at Restaurant Ling Long is a true delight. Strong on French and Italian with boutique wines alongside plenty of well-known quality producers from all of the important regions, some which are very hard to find. Wines from across the globe including China are supported here. Even countries you don't always see as well including Georgia and Lebanon. There are also 'on trend' amber wines and a Vin Jaune by the glass. Easy to read and navigate, It is obvious this wine collection at Ling Long is a labour of love.

LINGJIE SEAFOOD HOT POT

Wine list by TOP|SOMM Studio
Wine on list: 116 (2 by the glass)
By the glass: 198 - 198 RMB

A fun and concise list with a focus on the fine wines of Burgundy. There is a great list of Champagne followed by a selection of non-Burgundy wines from around the world. There is plenty of opportunity to splurge but also some more conservatively priced wine, yet all good quality. A truly hand selected wine list with plenty within its just over 100 offerings.

THE LOFT HOTPOT BISTRO

Cuisine: Cantonese hotpot
Wine list by Hu Meng
Wine on list: 80 (7 by the glass)
By the glass: 68 - 68 RMB

Hu Meng has curated a short, sharp list for the Loft Hotpot. All bases are covered in just 80 wines with plenty of value for the canny customer. Top-shelf icons are eschewed in favour of quality benchmarks from France, the rest of Europe and across the wide world of wine. The nod to Chinese spirits rounds out this compact wine list.

Wine list by Mr Frank Liu

Wine on list: 205 (24 by the glass)

By the glass: 68 - 258 RMB

Luedi aims to bring the diner an "amusing, quality and resonating" wine experience. It is certainly different to most in its presentation, starting the wine list with red wines and finishing with Champagne, and offering little in the way of cocktails and spirits save for a range of whiskies. It mixes established and well-known makers and wines from around the world, but also caters for the increasing interest in orange and natural wines. France and Italy do most of the heavy lifting, but both Old and New World wines can be found. Chinese red wines are also noted.

MAISON FLO

The Maison Lameloise sommelier, Hang Hang Lao has brought a touch of Burgundy (and other French wine regions) to Shanghai. All bases are well covered by Lao's (relatively) compact and thoughtful selection with a good number of wines offering surprisingly good value. The rest of Europe is well covered with a nod to the USA and the Southern Hemisphere. The enticing collection of Champagne from both Growers and Grande Marque Houses is an added and sparkling bonus.

Its the celebration of Asian drinks that elevates the Man Wah wine list into the upper echelon. That, and the rollcall of great Champagne. That's not to say that the other regions of France, wider Europe and the rest of the vinous world are not well covered - they are. More praise for the sake listing and the offerings of huangjiu and baijiu plus the tight half bottle selection.

THE MANOR , THE ST. REGIS MACAO

Wine on list: 178 (16 by the glass)

By the glass: 98 - 218 MOP

This is a wonderfully impressive list - immaculately presented. The wines by the glass list is exemplary with some excellent choices under Coravin and a neatly balanced selection of high quality wines at fair prices. While this is not a large listing, the choices the sommelier has made makes life easy for the guests. The small collection of delightful whites from France, Italy, Australia, New Zealand and China show careful thought and confidence. Similarly, larger collections in the other restaurant don't show the skill of the sommelier that we see at the Manor with its reds, especially those from France, Italy, the USA, Australia and China.

Wine list by Mr Alexander chen

Wine on list: 529 (22 by the glass)

By the glass: 68 - 480 RMB

The Meat wine list is well pitched to its protein inspired menu. French (red) wines lead the way with Champagne and white Burgundy in support. Red wines for Italy, Spain, the US and Australia add gravitas. That's not to say white wines are ignored, there's plenty of choice - and value for the keen-eyed customer. That said, the silken swath of Domaine Romanee Conti adds a splash of panache to this excellent wine list.

Primarily a French wine list with a good take on the wines of Burgundy and Bordeaux, but that is not all there is. While the selection on non-French wines might be small, there are some real gems to be discovered here, from an attractive South African chenin blanc, an aged chardonnay from a leading Californian maker, a well-priced Italian Barbaresco and a stunning Super Tuscan to a trio of exciting Chinese red wines, including the stunning Ao Yun from Yunnan. Take a look. If French wines are your fancy, you are definitely in luck. This list embraces a range of quality names and price points and provides multiple listings in white and red Burgundies from producers such as Girardin, Leflaive, Prieure Roch and Dugat-Py. The Chinese liquor listing sings.

The wines by the glass listing grabs your attention straight up with 22 wines which embraces a world of styles from Italian Prosecco and a leading Champagne house, Chinese chardonnay and South African chenin blanc to reds that cover China, France, South Africa, Spain, Italy and more. There is choice aplenty! But, leading from there is a page devoted to Chinese wines and spirits - definitely something to pore over given the Chinese cuisine - and then the bigger world of wine awaits. While France is a major focus, the wines cover a broad range of regions and price points, and this philosophy continues as you wander from the Old World to the New World.

Wine on list: 400 (9 by the glass)
By the glass: 188 - 388 RMB

Nabi's unashamedly premium offering aims for the sky from the first sections, with selections from Domaine des Comte Lafon & Domaine Leflaive setting the quality intentions very early. Indeed the Burgundy offering here is superb, as is the entire French focus, and the prestige Wine By The Glass range further invites a drinks upgrade. It has to be said that one of the few misses here is the exclusive focus on quality, with value a slight oversight.

Wine on list: 118 (16 by the glass)
By the glass: 68 - 198 RMB

Names like Donnhoff, Muga and Laurent Perrier will ensure that wine lovers find much to enjoy in the selection 'by the glass'. Burgundy and champagne would be the two categories that feature most impressively. A selection of Chinese offerings as well. A list with much to love.

Cuisine: Italian
Wine list by Calvin Choi
Wine on list: 400 (25 by the glass)
By the glass: 200 - 880 HKD

The Noi wine list is a comprehensive document with French wine leading the way, backed (appropriately) by a swath of Italian wines to match the Noi menu. Champagne and Burgundy feature strongly supported by a good number of benchmark Bordeaux. The Italian wines listed cover all bases with Piemonte and Tuscany leading the way. The 'by the glass' list is enticing as too the roundup of spirits and other drinks.

NORTH, THE VENETIAN MACAO 🍷🍷🍷

北方館

Level 1, Estrada da Baia de Neustra Senhora de Esperanca,
Cotai, Macau (SAR) 999078
81188822

<https://www.venetianmacao.com/restaurants/north.html>

Cuisine: North cuisine

Wine list by Ms Rose Hu

Wine on list: 443 (15 by the glass)

By the glass: 80 - 190 MOP

North looks to northern Chinese cuisine for its food inspiration and while the wine list may not encompass as many Chinese wines as it might, it does bring the bigger world of wine alive. Wines by the glass sets the scene nicely before moving into a listing of Sommelier Recommendations which offers a neat short cut of drinking possibilities before embarking on the bigger 400+ wine list. French wines nearly steal the show and are accompanied by strong support from Italy and wines of the USA before a smaller selection of wines from both hemispheres.

NORTH PALACE, THE LONDONER MACAO 🍷🍷🍷

北方鳴苑

Level 1, Estrada do Istmo, Cotai, Macau (SAR) 999078

Cuisine: Northern Chinese cuisine

Wine list by Ms Sammi Liu

Wine on list: 443 (15 by the glass)

By the glass: 80 - 90 MOP

Spicy dishes and traditional duck off a lychee wood-burning oven are some of the food partners asking for attention off the menu at North Palace. Fortunately, the 400+ international wine list is up to the challenge of northern Chinese cuisine, whether it be a Portuguese alvarinho by the glass or some fine aromatics whites from Alsace or Germany, a selection of rosés, or light-to-medium reds led by Burgundy and the USA. France steals the show, particularly the aged Bordeaux First Growths. Keep an eye out for the small band of Chinese wines as well as spirits. The Australians and South Americans contribute some interesting wines, too.

NOTTI 🍷🍷🍷

N/A

Cuisine: Italian Cuisine

Wine list by Karl Mo, Arneis Wu

Wine on list: 366 (15 by the glass)

By the glass: 88 - 258 RMB

This Italian restaurant in Shenzhen has an impressive wine list. Its focus is (naturally) on Italy although France is given good coverage and there's a range from around the world and from China, itself. The range from Italy includes some of its superstars as well as regional wines of good quality.

NUITS 🍷🍷🍷

68 Tongren Road, Jing'an District, Shanghai 200000

N/A

Cuisine: French Wine Bistro

Wine list by Mr Frank Wang, Mr Childe Shi

Wine on list: 466 (13 by the glass)

By the glass: 90 - 658 RMB

Nuits delivers a high-quality, French-focused list that proudly dives beyond just iconic names. Arguably, it's too premium, but the weight of fine Champagne and Burgundy, in particular, is irreplaceable. From the spotlight on Sauvignon Blanc to the clever selections from the new world, this is a well-chosen wine offering. Finally, a few more options beyond wine would be welcome here for greater success.

OASI BY CIAO AMICI

N/A

Cuisine: Fusion creative dishes

Wine list by Mr. Austin Cao

Wine on list: 116 (8 by the glass)

By the glass: 98 - 228 RMB

The team at Oasi in Shenzhen take their wine seriously. While the list by the glass may be small, all wines are available under Coravin. There is an impressive range of champagne and a wide-ranging group of wines from France. Apart from this, the rest of the world is covered with a good quality collection of wines. Cocktails are also tempting.

OBSCURA

N/A

Cuisine: Innovative Modern Chinese Cuisine

Wine list by Jiang Xue

Wine on list: 428 (11 by the glass)

By the glass: 160 - 360 RMB

Obscura's charismatic selection is certainly interesting, with plenty of shades to this wine list that are a little different. matching the restaurant's mission to unbound by 'any country's cooking techniques or ingredients'. You only have to look at the intriguing wine and non alcoholic pairing options to see this played out, but the appeal here goes beyond pairing, with a smart blend of mature vs current vintage listings and an appealing blend of icons and wines that sit the next layer down.

OLLA TAPAS & WINE

021 6228 8520

N/A

Cuisine: Spanish

Wine list by Huanhuan Zhang

Wine on list: 54 (8 by the glass)

By the glass: 58 - 68 RMB

Olla offers up a slice of Spain in Shanghai's Jing'an district. The creative dishes range from tapas to more substantial grilled meat and seafood options. Paired with a great 'by the glass' offering, classic cocktails and Spanish beer, this is contemporary, casual dining with flair. A concise wine list features Spanish wines amidst a broader international offering.

OMBRA

N/A

Cuisine: Contemporary French

Wine list by Ms Zixuan Li

Wine on list: 50 (16 by the glass)

By the glass: 48 - 118 RMB

Ombra offers contemporary French cuisine with broader European influences, from an elegant dining space in Shanghai's JiaShan Market. The wine list is a joy to behold with thoughtful curation; styles and varieties are grouped to pair with the food. It is a concise list of only 50 wines but has interesting discoveries at every budget, from across the globe. Wines 'by the glass' are similarly inspired, with a beautifully balanced selection of 15 to choose from, along with an excellent selection of classic cocktails.

THE ONE RESTAURANT & BAR

Floor 7, Rose One Store, Hanyao South Road, Qujiang District, Xi'an, Shaanxi 710000

N/A
Cuisine: French Cuisine
Wine list by Ms KK Liu
Wine on list: 126 (30 by the glass)
By the glass: 65 - 195 RMB

The number of wines and wines by the glass is growing at The One Restaurant & Bar as it moves from Fusion cuisine to a more French focus. The list remains a slightly eclectic range of wines from both hemispheres that enjoys throwing in the odd curve ball such as a duo of botanical inspired Pét Nat teas, a Spanish Pinot Noir and a Georgian grape variety interpreted by Chinese winemakers in Xinjiang. Amid this sense of discovery lies a solid grounding of wines from France, Spain and Italy with some excellent support from the New World. However, the starting point for any entry to this list lies with the incredibly creative cocktail listing which is divided into the classics and some extraordinary Chinese original cocktails employing indigenous and individual ingredients such as Baijiu, tea liqueurs, rice wine, Sichuan pepper flavoured whisky, rosemary rum and more. Whisky lovers will be enraptured by the range offered, and those seeking a no-alcohol option look no further than the equally creative Mocktail list.

While you may need to search a little harder on this 400+ international wine listing for the Chinese wines, they are there. Chateau Changyu Moser Longyu red from Ningxia is prominent on the Sommelier's Recommendation list and is joined by two aged reds the well-known Grace winery of Shanxi. They make for a lovely match with the Cantonese cuisine of Pin Yu Yuan, but then overall this is a such a comprehensive wine list that diners will not be disappointed in looking outside China. French wines, from the youthful to some impressive cellared wines, form the basis of the list, but this is also a list of discovery as it canvasses producers from both hemispheres, the Old and the New World of wine. Get ready to splurge should you be in love with top Burgundy and Bordeaux.

PINGJIANGSONG

By the glass: 98 - 258 RMB

The photos of its food, suggest a cuisine that values finesse, delicacy, the purity of its ingredients, and the subtle blending of flavours and its other component parts. The wine list, divided into the four seasons, is fascinating, creative, brilliantly conceived, yet not quite satisfactorily resolved. The wines themselves are first rate, and the list is beautifully presented. It does need more wines by the glass.

POP ON THE BUND 🍷🍷

www.threeonthebund.com
Cuisine: Modern European
Wine list by Mr Tommy Ying
Wine on list: 100 (14 by the glass)
By the glass: 78 - 118 RMB

With lots of potential, and an excellent mix of price points covered, the POP on the Bund list features lots of wines that you just don't see on your average Shanghai selection. From mature biodynamic NZ Chardonnay to a smorgasbord of DRC, this list isn't short on diversity. The highlights here include also plenty of back vintage releases and a handy assortment of whisky and spirits for balance, with the key frustration around a missing attention to detail (including no vintages for wines by the glass), which is needed to really go to the next level.

PU HUI 🍷🍷🍷

璞徽 (正大店)

5F, Super Brand Mall, No. 168 Lujiazui West Road, Pudong

Cuisine: Chinese Food
Wine list by DrinkArts Studio
Wine on list: 113 (5 by the glass)
By the glass: 88 - 108 RMB

With a wonderful riff on the textures of wine and styles, the Puhui list is both imaginative and packed with quality drinks. From the excellent tea and other drink selections, right through to the clever emotion and moods sections, this is one very creative offering. Further, the consideration to how flavours might work the Anhui cuisine, rather than just what wines/drinks are exciting, remains the chief motivation, which is so welcome. Indeed, the only negatives here is that the choices by the glass remain a bit stunted for such a high quality assortment of drinks.

Best Medium List (max 100 wines)

For such a concise selection, Qu Lang Yuan offers a savvy line-up of wines that manage to cover all bases. While European highlights feature throughout – France, Italy, Spain and Germany among them – new world wines also feature, and the focus on Chinese wines is impressive. The wines by the glass present some compelling local options across various styles, and anyone who still wants the big-ticket producers can turn to the back and deliberate between Gaja, Chateau Margaux and more.

Wine list by Mr Shawn Xiao
Wine on list: 79 (9 by the glass)
By the glass: 90 - 290 RMB

Led by an uncompromising focus on Champagne and Burgundy, the R.O.W.T. list packs in an impressive volume of well-priced, quality choices in a compact selection. Indeed, while this list is well chosen, there is no escaping that you're also looking for a few more options at every turn. Plenty of quality drinks by the glass is a welcome inclusion for a smaller list too, especially when it includes names like Zilliken & Bruno Giacosa, and even a wine pairing list to offer diners even more choice.

Wine on list: 320 (10 by the glass)

By the glass: 98 - 158 RMB

Ribone's eclectic selection features a blend of listings, spanning emerging names and traditional heroes alongside some surprises - like an array of Super Tuscan reds, or classic Rioja. That extends to vintages, with plenty of mature red wines delivered at very fair prices. A stronger attention to detail in the listings and a more diverse offering by the glass would help drive the Ribone list's success even further.

RIVA, MGM SHANGHAI WEST BUND

Wine on list: 293 (18 by the glass)

By the glass: 110 - 210 RMB

The MGM Shanghai wine offering is typically high quality across the scope of venues, and this list at Riva is certainly impressive. Here, the wine selection is ramped up significantly, with a broad range of Italian and local wines that feature plenty of favourites. Well-priced and well-chosen, Riva's selection is atypical for a venue that was opened in 2023, as punctuated (for just one example) by the quality selection of aged Nebbiolo.

Robuchon au Dôme at the Grand Lisboa shares the 17,500 bottle cellar and so is able to offer an astounding range of the greatest wines on the planet. If there is an outstanding wine you'd like to try, it will be available. The great sweet wines of German and the legendary fortifieds of Portugal are two areas that few can match. This list is the same as the Kitchen except for that by the glass. This sets Robuchon au Dôme apart. It's a roll call of the great wines of the world: Champagne, Whites, Reds, Sweet Wines, Fortifieds all available by the glass - with mature vintages. Spell-binding!

With an exclusively local selection, this list showcases a diversity of Chinese wines from all corners of the country, across everything from sparkling to full bodied reds. Looking forward, some of the vintage selections here remain a little long in the tooth (older rosé for example), and the lack of an offering by the glass is an impediment to a really involving experience. Still, there is plenty of promise in the Roosevelt China Wine Cellar.

Scena di Angelo in an Italian restaurant in the Ritz Carlton Hotel in Shanghai and so it's not surprising that it focuses attention on Italian wines in the very impressive list by the glass. Champagnes are complemented by a very good selection of sparkling wines from Italy. Similarly, attention is given to the country's finest from Piedmont, Friuli and Sicily alongside fine whites from France, Germany and, pleasingly, China. Similarly with reds, Barolo, Tuscany and Sicily are featured before a close look at France and the rest of the world.

Wine list by TOPISOMM Studio, Annie Yuan

Wine on list: 185 (8 by the glass)

By the glass: 88 - 220 RMB

With a very strong focus on Burgundian (and French) wines, the Selection by Du wine list dives deep into Chardonnay and Pinot Noir with an enviable offering. Featuring wines from grand names like DRC, Roulot and Rousseau, it's a quality selection of admirable intent. Arguably the listings beyond Burgundy feel like second best, as does the too-short selection by the glass. Regardless, with quality at the forefront and entirely fair prices, this is a strong list.

Cuisine: Chinese

Wine list by Eric Yang

Wine on list: 280 (15 by the glass)

By the glass: 68 - 135 RMB

A tight list by the glass with names like Donnhoff, showing the quality. The bulk of the list is a roll call of many of the great names of European wine. Plenty of attention has been paid to including mature wines. A fine list, especially with traditional names.

SHANGHAI TANG CAFE-BFC 🍷🍷🍷

上海滩餐厅 (BFC店)

Cuisine: Shanghai Cuisine

Wine list by Jay Yang

Wine on list: 173 (4 by the glass)

By the glass: 98 - 198 RMB

Shanghai Tang Café - BFC offers exquisitely presented Shanghai cuisine from its vibrant and dynamic dining space. The wine list is beautifully curated to showcase an array of styles and varieties from around the world, from the old world to the new, and in-between. There is also a tempting list of grain-based beverages featuring sake, Chinese yellow rice wine and baijiu, alongside quality cocktails and spirits.

SHANGHAI TANG CAFE XINTIANDI 🍷🍷🍷

Wine list by Jerry Du, Lowen Ma

Wine on list: 173 (4 by the glass)

By the glass: 98 - 138 RMB

Shanghai Tang Café XinTianDi showcases diverse flavours in its elegantly presented Chinese cuisine. The wine list offers an excellent range of varieties and styles from around the world, including Chinese wines – both from grapes and rice. For lovers of the classics, a premium offering including Domaine de La Romanée-Conti, Petrus and Château d'Yquem, will delight.

SHANGHAI TAVERN, THE SHANGHAI EDITION 🍷🍷

Cuisine: Continental Cuisine

Wine list by Ms Kexin Li

Wine on list: 184 (11 by the glass)

By the glass: 108 - 598 RMB

From the first pages, the Shanghai Tavern list makes its ambitions known, with a high quality Seasonal Sommelier Selection that is overflowing with dramatic and interesting natural and biodynamic choices. After this high bar opener, the rest of the list chooses from far and wide, venturing from Switzerland to South Africa, and with a bent towards minimal intervention choices and plenty of drinks beyond wine. Casting a critical eye, a little more attention to detail with spelling and information would be welcome here too.

SHENG YONG XING (BUND) 🍷🍷🍷

晟永兴

5th Floor, The Bund Five, 20 Guangdong Road, Huangpu District, Shanghai 310101

N/A

Cuisine: Chinese Peking Cuisine

Wine list by Arneis Wu

Wine on list: 170 (10 by the glass)

By the glass: 58 - 398 RMB

The Sheng Yong Xing format is a fascinating list that, unusually, is built around price points. While that might sound like it could focus just on affordability, this list instead reminds us that great wines exist no matter your budget. Undoubtedly, the sheer depth of style, regions, and flavours is the other reason this selection works. There is so much diversity at every price point that it never feels constrictive. Couple that with each price bracket, then split out according to your protein choice (seafood, duck, roast meat), and you have a recipe for a wonderfully accessible beverage list.

SHENG YONG XING (PUDONG) 🍷🍷🍷

晟永兴 (陆家嘴店)

N/A

Cuisine: Chinese Peking Cuisine

Wine list by Arneis Wu

Wine on list: 80 (5 by the glass)

By the glass: 58 - 138 RMB

Following in the footsteps of the Bund outlet of Sheng Yong Xing, this Pudong iteration share much of the superb wine list DNA albeit with a slightly cut down version. In particular, the format here of picking your price point and a suitable wine is both diner-friendly and wonderfully interesting, with the breadth of wines (from all over the globe) offering so much pleasure. If anything, the only disappointment here is the shortened selection by the glass and across both spirits and beers.

SHENG YONG XING (SAN LI TUN)

晟永兴 (三里屯店)

Cuisine: Chinese Peking Cuisine
Wine list by Arneis Wu
Wine on list: 90 (6 by the glass)
By the glass: 58 - 98 RMB

A tight list ordered in a most idiosyncratic way, which will appeal to some and challenge others, but the contents include a number of the great names from the world of wine. These are well supported by a selection of Chinese spirits.

SHILIHUATING JINGU RESTAURANT

十里华庭金谷餐厅

No 9 JinZhou South Road, HuangPu District , Guangzhou, Guangdong 510715

N/A

Cuisine: Canton & Chiuchow cuisine
Wine list by Mr Bruce Li, Mr Victor Liu
Wine on list: 68 (9 by the glass)
By the glass: 69 - 129 RMB

ShiLiHuaTing JinGu is based in Guangzhou and has a smallish list with a good deal to recommend it. Its wines by the glass chooses a range from around the world including two from China. The rest of the list begins with an impressive collection of 10 whites and 10 reds from China. There is a thoughtfully chosen range of Champagne and a wide ranging array from around the world.

SIP LOUNGE, SHANGRI-LA YUANQU, SUZHOU

隐秀酒廊

Cuisine: Asian flavor, local Huaiyang cuisine
Wine list by Daniel Xing
Wine on list: 69 (0 by the glass)
By the glass: 0 - 0 RMB

The SIP Lounge wine list offers a wide range of drinks with wine just a part of the mix. The selection is tight with all major countries, regions and styles represented. The 'by the glass' list adds depth but its the huge offering of spirits, cocktails and liqueurs that takes the SIP Lounge wine list to a higher plane.

SIR ELLY'S RESTAURANT, THE PENINSULA SHANGHAI

No. 32 The Bund, 32 Zhongshan Dong Yi Road , Shanghai, 200002

Cuisine: Modern European
Wine list by Simon Li
Wine on list: 378 (22 by the glass)
By the glass: 158 - 1288 RMB

Fully deserving of its rating, Sir Elly's list features a deep dive into the world of wine that starts in France but proudly explores the whole planet. The curation is most welcome here, from the 'Sommelier Recommendation' to the 'Timeless wine', with a range that covers everything from grower Champagne to orange wine and a wonderful whisky/ey offering. A particular attention to detail would be one of the only gripes here, for what is otherwise an expansive win and 'other' drinks list.

SKY 59, MGM SHANGHAI WEST BUND

SKY 59屋顶酒吧

688 Yunjin Road, Xuhui District, Shanghai 200232

021 6058 8849

<http://mgm-shanghai.com/>

Cuisine: Bar Fusion

Wine list by Jill Chang, Cong Ren

Wine on list: 125 (17 by the glass)

By the glass: 110 - 210 RMB

One of the most welcome aspects of the Sky 59 wine and drinks list is that it doesn't stop at the typical Burgundy, Champagne & Bordeaux inclusions, instead looking at global listings for more interest. Combine that worldview with a smattering of welcome mature wines, all helping to make this list impressive. On that point, a special mention of the whisky choices here, too, and the consideration of value for what is a premium-leaning selection of beverages. Finally, a little more varietal diversity could help the Sky 59 list be even more successful.

SKYLINE

遇外滩

56/F, Raffles City West Tower, Gongping Road, Hongkou District, Shanghai 200050

021-68889080

N/A

Cuisine: Fujian Cuisine

Wine list by TOP|SOMM Studio

Wine on list: 189 (7 by the glass)

By the glass: 138 - 288 RMB

Rich with high-quality wines, the Skyline offering showcases a rare breadth of choices from the original selection by the glass, through the thoughtful wine pairing (which is perpetually a welcome addition to any wine list) and the awe-inspiring Prestige Selection. Separating wines by style unquestionably helps with navigation, and the detail continues through to lively and considered spirits and beers for anyone interested in drinks beyond wine. A few more value wines remains one of the few missing elements here.

SNOWLAND SECRET, POTALA PALACE

THEME PARK

极地之秘

Building 2, ZoneB, Ci Jue Lin He Mei, Chengguan District, Lhasa, Qinghai 850000

166 8900 9966

Cuisine: Contemporary Tibetan Cuisine

Wine list by Ms Rita Jiang

Wine on list: 50 (9 by the glass)

By the glass: 60 - 150 RMB

Tibetan cuisine meets Chinese wines at Snowland Secret in Lhasa and it's a wonderful, creative meeting. The food and wine pairing that introduces the list champions the wines of Yunnan and Sichuan not to mention the odd Himalayan barley beer and barley spirit. In what is a small wine list of 50 wines the diner can explore a lot of wine territory including a solid number of European wines led by a good Champagne selection, the odd German and Austrian riesling, French whites and reds and even the odd New Zealander. Diners should beware that the wines by the glass listing is without vintages listed.

SOLE

景煊

109 Shanghai Centre, No. 1376 Nanjing Road West, Jing'an District, Shanghai 200040

N/A

Cuisine: Cantonese

Wine list by Zoe Yu

Wine on list: 203 (12 by the glass)

By the glass: 70 - 318 RMB

With a wonderfully curated feel to every choice, the Sole wine list is an enticing journey through the different elements of great wine, from vintner to vineyard and vintage. It's a mouthwatering experience that wanders from To Kalon to Masseto, Torrontes to Tokaji and everything in between. The Coravin-driven by the glass selection expertly matches the full list too, just to bookend the great Sole drinking experience.

Sommelier of the Year - Hong Kong, Macau, Taiwan
Best Wine List Hong Kong
Best Wine Bar Wine List
Best Wine by the Glass List

The 'by the glass' list sets the scene for this astonishing wine list. The carefully curated offering by the taste, glass and carafe is a joy to peruse before diving deep into the core of the list. The multiple selections listed by producer adds appeal as does the depth of the Champagne, Burgundy and Bordeaux on offer. That's not say the rest of France is ignored, nay its celebrated as are other European producers, those of the new world of wine and China. The Sake list adds gravitas as does the dessert and fortified wine selection. This is a stellar wine list.

SPITFIRE 🍷🍷

Yuanfengqiao No.8, Changzhou, Jiangsu 213000

Cuisine: Fusion Cuisine

Wine list by Eve Li

Wine on list: 160 (16 by the glass)

By the glass: 50 - 150 RMB

Spitfire Bistro calls its cuisine Chinese fusion – really it's an explosion of international flavours. There are crepes and galettes, burgers and pastas, alongside quirky takes on more local dishes. The wine list too has an international flair, with an interesting mix of varieties and styles from both emerging and well-known producers. There are some exciting finds within this well-priced list, including a great range by the glass.

THE ST. REGIS BAR, THE ST. REGIS

MACAO 🍷🍷🍷

Cuisine: Bar food

Wine list by N/A

Wine on list: 178 (16 by the glass)

By the glass: 98 - 218 MOP

The St. Regis wine list delivers the full wine bar experience whether it's a gin or beer to start, a quality wine by the glass, a youthful, juicy white wine from the New World or a well-aged red courtesy of the Old World, finishing with a top shelf Bourbon, Baijiu or Single Malt . . . it's to be found here. So much choice which is what we love to see and in total unison with snack foods which include Boston lobster sliders and fried chicken with gold leaf. The main wine list - international in scope - is concise and covers a lot of territory, delivering a range of wines at different price points satisfying those who wish to be modest in their choices and those who wish to splurge. Vintages tend towards the youthful and fresh - St. Regis was founded only four years ago - with some quality wines from Australia, China, the USA, New Zealand and Chile taking it to the classic names from Europe. The exhaustive selection of gins and whiskies is also highly recommended.

STEAK BY ROOSEVELT, THE HOUSE OF ROOSEVELT 🍷🍷

Wine list by Mr Larry, Ms Winnie

Wine on list: 729 (6 by the glass)

By the glass: 83 - 158 RMB

Best Listing of Chinese Wines (joint winner)

Start with a cocktail as you admire the view across the Huangpu River in Shanghai from the elegant dining room of Steak by Roosevelt. It will come as no surprise that steak is taken very seriously here with beef imported from Australia and America. Fresh produce is a recurring theme, with oysters from France, lobster from Boston and salmon from New Zealand. The wine list is exclusively Chinese with an excellent selection from across the regions. A brief introduction to the producers adds some interesting context.

SUFU BEIJING

Cuisine: Fusion cuisine

Wine list by Mr Zhe Han

Wine on list: 155 (7 by the glass)

By the glass: 70 - 268 RMB

The emphasis here is unashamedly on Burgundy. Red, white and even sparkling, premier and grand crus. Anything Burgundian, but there are plenty of support options as well, if there lies your preference. There is a solid supporting cast of beverages on this very specialised list.

SUFUJI SEAFOOD LORD

苏福记海鲜佬

Cuisine: Seafood /Cantonese cuisine style

Wine list by Mr Hang Su, Ms Aimee Qin

Wine on list: 82 (11 by the glass)

By the glass: 35 - 150 RMB

Seafood is celebrated at Sufuji with its wine list following the piscine theme. Well detailed notes on a thoughtful selection of sommelier recommendations sets the scene with a tight 'by the glass' lists in support. The bottled wines flow through France, Italy and the balance of the vinous world succinctly. A handful of top notch (red) Bordeaux adds gravitas with a thoughtful selection of Chinese wines rounding out the snappy wine list.

SUI TANG LI, THE MIDDLE HOUSE

Cuisine: Modern Chinese

Wine list by James Teng

Wine on list: 280 (13 by the glass)

By the glass: 95 - 308 RMB

Why approach wine and drinks in the same way as every other restaurant? Sui Tang Li instead delivers a selection that highlights varieties, styles, and ingredients from all over the world. That means Pinot from Burgundy, Germany, South Africa, and New Zealand, or gin from all points of the globe. The result is a refreshing offering that goes beyond names and instead dives into flavours, as the extensive elixirs and teas that complete this excellent list show perfectly.

SUMMER PALACE, JINGAN SHANGRI-LA

Cuisine: Cantonese Cuisine

Wine list by King Wang

Wine on list: 300 (5 by the glass)

By the glass: 120 - 198 RMB

Nipping at the heels of greatness, the wonderfully lyrical and involving list at Summer Palace Shanghai is an interesting journey. This selection delivers plenty, from the emotive headers, like 'Romance from the chalk', to the excellent contrasts between emerging names and more classical makers. For even greater success, a few details would help complete the package, including a rosé section, some sparkling wines available by the glass (indeed, more of everything by the glass), and some more spirits/non-wine options.

SUNTORY JAPANESE CUISINE & WHISKY

CITIC Square 5F 505-508, No.1168, Nanjing West Road,
Jing'an District, Shanghai 200041

Cuisine: Authentic Japanese
Wine list by Mr Takayoshi Aoki
Wine on list: 250 (12 by the glass)
By the glass: 150 - 460 RMB

Bringing a little slice of Japanese bar culture to Shanghai, Suntory offers up a very impressive drinks selection that manages to cover so many global bases, especially with the backing of the strong global Suntory selection of wine and drinks brands. Understandably, sake and whisky remain a high point in this list, complemented by welcome verticals of wines from the Suntory properties. It's wonderful to see a proper international selection of beverage listings here, although with a curiously short beer and by the glass offering.

SUSHI KINETSU, CITY OF DREAMS MACAU

Cuisine: Omakase
Wine list by Mr Nigel Chan, Mr Michael Ye
Wine on list: 40 (3 by the glass)
By the glass: 138 - 238 MOP

Sushi Kinetsu is a little Japanese oasis in the City of Dreams, Macau, where the saké flows - by the glass, carafe or bottle - and where the wine list is finely turned with the restaurant's omakase cooking in mind. Expect a lot of Champagne and white Burgundy - indeed, the white wines listed easily outnumber the few red wines here - and some expensive options from the likes of Jacques Selosse, Salon, Georges De Vogüé and Albert Bichot. A small complement of fair-priced wines from French regions, including red Burgundy, completes the list.

Cuisine: Western Cuisine
Wine list by Louie Yang
Wine on list: 482 (31 by the glass)
By the glass: 99 - 255 RMB

When you step into Suzie, you could be forgiven for thinking you have been transported to Europe. The seafood focused, European-style menu, incorporates French and Italian influences from an elegant bistro setting. This wine-friendly dining is supported by an impressive 'by the glass' list of more than 30 wines. The broader wine list is an international celebration, with unusual grape varieties and styles represented alongside iconic producers. While France, and particularly Burgundy, features heavily, there is so much to discover in the thoughtful selection of almost 500 bottles.

SUZIE'S GARDEN

Cuisine: Mediterranean style food
Wine list by Mr Tim Shi
Wine on list: 781 (14 by the glass)
By the glass: 85 - 140 RMB

Suzie's Garden brings contemporary casual dining to Shanghai's Jing'an district from, what feels like, an Italian villa in the countryside. The two-storey restaurant offers elegant indoor spaces or al fresco dining, in the shade of an abundant garden. A broad range of fusion dishes are clearly designed with wine in mind. And the wine list will not disappoint – the beautifully balanced list includes over 700 labels to explore.

Cuisine: American steak house
Wine list by Thomas Guo, Amy Pan
Wine on list: 830 (33 by the glass)
By the glass: 70 - 380 MOP

So much to get excited about with this list, whether it's the comprehensive selection of Chinese wines from sparklings through to dessert, the serious take on wines by the glass or the mix of classic and new wine names from around the world, this list has choice aplenty. The deep dive into the ever-impressive Chinese wine industry reflects the great range of quality, styles, names and regions now being produced. China is a real feature of this list together with a range of wines we don't normally get to enjoy, such as those from Switzerland, Greece, Chile and Austria, among others more well known and celebrated. At its heart, is a serious selection of French wines - be prepared for some special wines - with cellared wines a real feature. It's hard to take in wines such as a '54 Beychevelle, '39 Cheval Blanc or a '64 Gran Reserva from R. Lopez de Heredia, but if you have the funds, they are yours.

TANGHUI

滬会

Cuisine: Chaozhou Cantonese Cuisine
Wine list by Mr Hanson Hang
Wine on list: 169 (4 by the glass)
By the glass: 108 - 138 RMB

There are just two thing missing with the very strong Tang Hui selection - a much deeper offering of wine by the glass, and a layer of wines beyond the absolute finest wines. Indeed, there is such impressive breadth in the very fine wine selections here, right up to verticals of rare Domaine de la Romanée-Conti, that the affordable and accessible listings are the only oversights. A special mention to the clever section titles too, reminding how much thought went into the Tang Hui list.

TAOHUADU

This Italian restaurant in Ningbo has an immaculately presented wine list curated by top sommelier, Meiyu Li. Strong by the glass, with carefully chosen bubbly, and a focus on France - and especially Burgundy - the list offers admirable support to the innovative menu. The rest of France has some depth while the smallish Italian section is carefully chosen. Exemplary.

Wine on list: 69 (15 by the glass)

By the glass: 76 - 156 MOP

The Tasting Room is new in 2024 and arrives with a wine list completely in sync with its American steakhouse cuisine. With American-imported meat on the menu, diners can match it to a full range of American white and red wines with the emphasis on reds. The star of the list is the mouth-watering USA Premium Selection of Cabernet Sauvignons from producers such as Stag's Leap, Joseph Phelps, Opus One and Dominus. The Americans are complimented by a small range of world wines many of which can be tasted by the glass. Excellent before and after dining cocktail and spirit options here, too.

Wine list by Mr David Feng Ms Belle Bai

Wine on list: 394 (13 by the glass)

By the glass: 58 - 388 RMB

It's no surprise that Italian wines are so well represented at Tavola, but it's the depth of choice that's impressive. There are also plenty of highlights from further afield, spanning old world and new alike. These include a page dedicated to Chinese wines across all styles, plus standouts from the likes of Austria, Spain and Australia, to name a few. The team has made navigating this list easy, and there's some particularly good value on offer throughout, with a solid selection of digestives and spirits bringing it home.

Pause a moment to enjoy the complete hedonistic pleasure in perusing the Château Latour Vertical Collection 1945-2005 (which is available for purchase) before returning to earth and a wine list that looks to the world's quality wine producers for inspiration. Champagne with top houses and vintages back to 1962, French whites and aromatics in tune with the Japanese cuisine and New World pinot noirs that also work with the Tenmasa food menu. Cabernet fans and those who enjoy the great reds of Italy are in for a particularly wonderful treat. The dessert sweet wine list is one to keep in mind with dessert.

Cuisine: Italian

Wine list by Timothy Chan

Wine on list: 985 (32 by the glass)

By the glass: 90 - 838 MOP

Excites the imagination with not only its comprehensive selection of Italian wines which work so well with Terrazza's Italian cuisine, but a list of wines by the glass which is large in number (32) and includes a section of premium wines under Coravin from makers that include Gaja, Château Palmer, Bonneau du Martray, Antinori and Paolo Scavino. The list embraces the larger world of wine but at its heart is a serious selection of Italian wines from across the country with star regions Tuscany and Piedmont explored in-depth. Champagne and Bordeaux are also done to perfection, and should your credit card feel up to it, there are some drool-worthy aged wines from Haut-Brion (1961), DRC (2004) and Cos d'Estournel (1928) among others.

Combines the classics and some premium wines of the world with a selection of up-and-comers that includes organic and biodynamic wine producers (not noted with a symbol but they are there), and a separate category devoted to orange and low intervention Natural Wines. New generation wine drinkers attracted to low intervention wines will enjoy the mix of wines from France, Austria, Hungary and the Czech Republic. All price points are covered which makes the selection that little bit easier, and wines by the glass is a particularly good starting point with a lot of international choice on offer. The section on Chinese wines, written up in Mandarin, may need to be translated for non-Chinese speakers.

Tivano has invested a lot of time and care into its Italian wine listing with the rest of the world following on. Some far flung places are embraced, too, including the wines of Georgia, Lebanon, Uruguay, South Africa, Chile and Argentina in addition to a dusting of European, Australian/New Zealand entries. Chinese wines are definitely worth a second look. The wine flights offered are an excellent starting point, together with some well-priced wines by the glass. Or there is the Sommelier's Selection where the sommelier's detailed tasting notes will help you in your decision-making. But it is Italy and its wines that shine with youth and age on display. Special mention goes to the reds of Tuscany and Piedmont.

The Top Feast wine list is enticing with a burst of Champagne setting the standard. Prestige bottlings from Grande Marque Houses vie for attention with respected Grower Champagnes such as Egly-Ouriet and Larmandier Bernier. Likewise 1st Growth Bordeaux mingle easily with credible reds from Australia, Argentina and the US. The tight 'by the glass' selection is augmented with some half bottles. A solid selection of Chinese wines and spirits rounds things out.

Wine list by Pesca

Wine on list: 80 (3 by the glass)

By the glass: 78 - 88 RMB

The only thing holding back the Torichi list is the length - it's simply too short, and especially given that this well-curated offering delivers so much for so few listings. The by the glass section, in particular, is far too limited, and a Coravin would be a game changer here! Regardless of the length, the minimal intervention-leaning selection is high quality and interesting, with plenty of eclectic listings.

Wine on list: 74 (5 by the glass)
By the glass: 79 - 129 RMB

This is a thoughtful, well curated wine list with an emphasis on small producers and grower Champagnes. The tight 'by the glass' selection is to be applauded as does the broad sweep across the vinous globe. A swath of mature (French) wines adds gravitas with the 1990 Mouton offering especially good value. The tight Chinese spirit offering adds a final flourish

Wine on list: 638 (17 by the glass)
By the glass: 120 - 500 MOP

Zi Yat Heen is a Michelin starred restaurant in Macao's Four Seasons Hotel, specialising in Cantonese cuisine and premium seafood. The wine list, a substantial book of more than 600 labels, focusses on Burgundy, Bordeaux, the Rhône Valley, and interestingly, Portugal. It doesn't stop there, the 'by the glass' list might offer Swiss or Greek varieties. Many of the great producers of the world can be found here, as can excellent examples of Sake, Huangjiu and Biajiu.
